Story of Moses

- Freedom
- Leadership
- Suffering
- Obedience
- Vulnerability
- God

Freedom = the condition of being able or allowed to do, say, think etc. whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited

Justice = fairness in the way people are dealt with

Are the Ten Commandments still important today?

Christians apply this idea to living today by trying to serve God and to bring freedom to others; for example, loving others, caring for them, bringing health, food, justice, and telling the story of Jesus.

This story inspires some Christian charities seek to bring freedom and justice today

It is not only Christian and Jewish people who want freedom and justice, why are they so important in the world today?
