Happy Friday Everyone!

We would like to say a massive thank you for to The Bedford Swan Hotel and AB Fruits of Bedford for their kind donation of cooking ingredients. This has been greatly received by Years 1, 2, 3 and 4 who are all looking forward to cooking this week.

THINK IT.

We had a fantastic time at Cambridgeshire Schools Cross Country Championships held at Priory Park at St Neots on Tuesday. We took four teams, a total of 16 children to represent our school. With over 50 schools competing, our Yr5 A Team 3rd, our Y5 B Team came 2nd, Y6 A team 29th and Y6 B Team 2nd. The children showed great sportsmanship and thoroughly enjoyed the event.

Our netball team were so proud to be invited to play at the County Bee Netball tournament finals. We won one game, drew two and lost three games. The children had a fantastic time and are very proud of how much the team have developed over such a short time.

An informal art-based Church Service for all ages at St Mary's
Sunday 28th May
3pm – 4pm Board Games at the back of the church, followed by a special Pentecost Service at 4pm

Live it! - Eco tip

Use old egg cartons to grow seedlings. Once the seeds have sprouted, you can plant the entire egg carton in the ground if the carton is made out of biodegradable material like wood pulp or recycled paper.
