

Persuasive Text Checklist Year 3

Student Name:
Text Topic:
Feature	Achieved	Comment
Sentences begin with a capital letter.
Sentences end with a full stop.
Title states the topic.
One clear opinion is discussed.
Opening paragraph includes three reasons to support the author's opinion.
Text is written in paragraphs.
Each reason has supporting facts.
Text is written in sequence.
Concluding paragraph restates opinion and reasons.
Rhetorical questions are included.
Cause and effect is included to connect reasons and facts.
Strong and emotive language is used to challenge the reader to agree or disagree.
Ambiguous language is used such as 'more than likely, to be sure, almost certainly'.		